- This is a wonderful school. It is great that there is always someone on the gate to greet my child with a smile. The staff are great and always want the best for my child. I am grateful for what they do.
- Fantastic school. Proud to send my child there.
- Need to talk to Miss Pearce a bit more about XXXXXXXXXXXX
- Would love more availability for girls sports/music and more creative opportunities but also recognise that time constraints take a huge part in this.
- Amazing school all of my children adore it at Ivegill
- Ivegill is a brilliant school which helps my child develop at and away from school. He has many friends and enjoys learning.

- None, an amazing school with exceptional staff
- A fantastic school which is going from strength to strength. I have had four children at this school and can't speak highly enough of this amazing . Simply the best
- Little investment in SEN support. Eg sensory areas. Parents evenings are too rushed
- A great school that both my children love and have both improved in so many areas.
- The school gives the kids so many enjoyable experiences that perhaps a better social media presence would benefit the school going forward.
- My children are very happy and enjoy going to school everyday.
- Both my children love Ivegill School, we couldn't fault it.
- Proud to say my child attends this school as it is a fantastic school
- we are very happy with this school
- Brilliant school
- This is a fantastic school all staff members go above and beyond and really know our child. Teachers/TA's work ethic not only supports our child but gives children brilliant role models. Thank you all!
- Nothing to add

- More toilet breaks
- The school social media could be improved. Posts on Instagram and Facebook would be more useful than X/twitter.
- My child is very happy at this school and has a lovely group of friends . The staff are extremely helpful and supportive.
- Fantastic school, they really care. Always make time for us if we have any worries or concerns
